MACS Cross Arthurlie Newsletter June 2015

Project Manager: Claire Issa-Lavelle Depute- Sharon Mckeown

Play carers- Bernadette, Heather, Fiona, Kieran, Michelle, Nicole, Nicola

Hi Everyone

I can't believe that we are on our final countdown to the summer holidays. It's been a fast and busy term.

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome Michelle who has just returned from maternity leave and prior to her going off on leave was based at our Neilston project, however she has also worked at Cross Arthurlie and is familiar with some of the children and parents.

MACS 20th Anniversary

We are holding a Celebration evening in September to celebrate 20 years of MACS. As part of this celebration we are holding a MACS Got Talent. Children will audition in their own projects and the winners will be put through to the final which will be held at Mearns Primary in September. The auditions for Cross Arthurlie will take place from Monday 15th June and run throughout that week.

Activities

The football team has been very successful and the children have enjoyed participating in this activity. We will be holding a presentation for this activity later this month and parents are invited to come along.

Heart Start- Nicole and Nicola are going to be doing a heart start workshop with the children in P3, P4 and P5 from week beginning 8th June. Permission forms for this activity will be distributed this week.

Registration Forms

You will be receiving new registration and activity permission forms via email, can I please ask that you complete these and return them ASAP.

P7 Leavers

We will be holding a P7 Leavers event, date to be confirmed.

New Starts Induction Dates

Inductions will be held on Friday 12th June at 4.30pm. If your child/children has a sibling starting you should have received an invite to come along. If you cannot make this date and have not already arranged another time to visit, please see Claire.
